

DATE: _____

CLINICAL AREA: _____

How' You Doin'?? 2003

Infection Control

And

Patient Confidentiality

Instructions:

- ☐ Test your knowledge by asking yourself and at least 5 of your colleagues the following questions.
- ☐ Indicate in the boxes whether you answered the question correctly (Y) or were not able to answer the question (N). Your manager or supervisor will be able to provide you with the correct answers.
- ☐ Give yourself and your colleagues a pat on the back for a job well done!!! Then, send the results to Ginnie Daine by October 15, 2002.
- ☐ Got questions and you and your staff want to discuss a topic, simply check the box to the left of the topic.

	Critical Issue	1	2	3	4	5	6
	1. What infection control measures do you use every day in your job?
	2. How do you know what isolation a patient requires?
	3. Where do you get personal protective barrier equipment?
	4. How does the CC manage tuberculosis patients?
	5. What do you do in the event of an occupational exposure or injury?
	6. Who can you call if you have questions regarding infection control issues in the hospital?
	7. What security is required for medications?
	8. Why are we worried about security of syringes and needles?
	9. How are investigational drugs controlled?
	10. What happens when the manufacturer recalls a drug?
	11. Who is responsible for medication refrigerator checks?
	12. What are the requirements for patients to use their own medications (not alternative medications or dietary supplements while in the Clinical Center?
	13. What drugs are on floor stock?
	14. What are high-alert drugs and how do we minimize risks in the Clinical Center?

- ☐ We would like to discuss this topic further with someone!! (check box if indicated)